THE WORLD OF SOUTHERN SHAMAN Tarnished offers a story of how the world of Southern Shaman began. A World made up of a vast number of different territories, surrounded by a magical barrier, and ruled by three Lords of the Elden. The Gods of the three gods, who were born at the same time as their children, conferred upon them an Elden Ring to rule over the Lands Between. For three thousand years, the Lands Between has been their domain. The story revolves around the ancient

Lords who are reborn over and over again with their Elden Ring, and the three Gods, who are born with the Lands Between as their own domain. It is said that there are three Gods and three Lords in the world of Southern Shaman. By imbuing the power of the ancient chaos into the great Hero, they made their appearance known to all the children of the Elden Ring and began their rule over the Lands Between. They set the world of Southern Shaman on a course that takes place in both fantasy and modern time. A hero takes an arrow. LORD OF THE HEART The Lord of the Heart, Elder King Hertle, resides in the Elder Domain, which is spread across several countries. There, he opens up land to the Elden Ring. This land, which was once full of heroes and power, began to fall into a dark age. Herva the Chaos, who was born from the heartbeat of a battle between two opposing sides, was born in this age. As a being without a heart, he cannot be part of the Elden Ring, but he was born with a powerful weapon, the Black Arrow, and he vows to be the savior of the people. The Black Arrow is a powerful magic that Herva imbues into a given weapon, giving it new powers. Its shadows carry the weight of death. To be shot with the Black Arrow is to be killed. When Herva, the Lord of the Heart, appeared at this time, his arrow remained untouched by the darkness. Thus, the Lord of the Heart, the Lord who uses magic to rule the heart of the people, has been reincarnated. The wealth of the Elden Ring and magic have brought the people back from the abyss of despair. He has united the people of the Lands Between, and he is honored as the savior of the people. The Lord of the Heart, whose domain is the Elder Domain, is the center of the Elden
