A: The problem seems to be that you have extra line breaks ( or ) in your html that are being parsed by the browser into and tags. There are many, many posts out there on the topic, including this old thread that provides a few examples. This is a phase one proposal to develop and demonstrate an extremely compact, reliable, and easy to use tool for electrophoresis and a stable system for amplification of DNA by the polymerase chain reaction. The DNA chip is a permanently mounted on-line device and can be operated with minimal training and with a minimum of instrumentation.
